CANCELLATION POLICY:

A full refund will be made to any student who cancels the enrollment contract before midnight of the third day excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays, after the enrollment contract is signed by the prospective student, unless the student has completed the course and accepted a certificate during that period.

- This agreement constitutes the entire contract between the school and the student and no verbal assurances or promises not contained herein shall bind the school or the student.
- The school is prohibited from issuing a DE-964 if the student has not met all the requirements of course completion, and the student should not accept a DE-964 under such circumstances.
- This driver education center maintains business vehicle insurance as required by the Transportation Code, Chapter 601, and uninsured or underinsured motorist coverage.

REFUND POLICY

Refund computations will be based on actual instructions received through the last date of attendance. The effective date of the termination for refund purposes will be the earliest of (a) the last day of attendance, if the student is terminated by the school (b) the date of receipt of written notice from the student. If tuition is collected in advance of entrance and, if after the expiration of the 72 hours cancellation privilege, the student does not enter school, terminates, enrollment, or withdraws, the school may retain up to $50 as administrative expenses and, from the remainder, shall refund that portion of the classroom tuition fees, and behind the wheel tuition and fees for services not previously received by the student. Refunds for items of extra expense to the student, including instructional supplies, books, laboratory fees, service charges, rentals, deposits, and all other such ancillary miscellaneous charges, will be made within 30 days after the effective date of enrollment termination, if these items are stated separately and shown as part of the data furnished to the student before enrollment.

A full refund of all tuition and fees is due and refundable in each of the following cases: (a) when an enrollee is not accepted by the school; (b) There is a misrepresentation in advertising, promotional materials of the school, or misrepresentation of the school. Refunds shall be completed within 30 days after the effective date of termination.

Notice to Parents and Guardians from the TEXAS DEPT OF LICENSING AND REGULATION.

The TDLR licenses this driver education center and its instructors. As the parent or guardian of your teenager, you are entitled to know the minimum requirements of this teen driver course. Minimum requirements include: 32 hours of classroom instruction and 7 hours behind the wheel and 7 hours of observation of another student.

Seven (7) clock hours of in car driving instruction and an additional seven (7) clock hours of in car observation are required.

There is a maximum of four (4) hours of driver training per day per student, however, only two hours are allowed in car in one day. These activities include in car driving and observation scheduled classroom, make-up classroom, and behind the wheel driving. In-car observation time is unlimited. In car driving and observation must be completed within the timelines stated in this contract. (Note: During peak enrollment periods, in car instruction time could be subject to availability.) If you have reason to believe that these minimum requirements are not being met, please call the Texas Department of Licensing and Regulation at (512) 463-6599.

ATTENDANCE AND ABSENCE POLICY

If a student is absent more than five days of the classroom instruction, they will have to come to the next scheduled session of classes (session being the 32-hour session) to make up the time missed. Students will not be allowed to be absent from the make-up classes. If there are less than five absences, the assigned module, work must be made up before the 32-hour class session is over.

GRADING AND PROGRESS POLICY

Appropriate standards shall be implemented to ascertain the progress of students. Progress standards shall be the requirements of these currently adopted by the commissioner of education. Mastery is a prerequisite to awarding a grade of 70 or above. Evidence of mastery shall be determined by one or more of the following methods: Records are kept on the driving log. The progress evaluation record shall be of the type and nature to reflect whether the student is making satisfactory progress to the point of being able to complete all subject matter within the allotted time provided in this contract. We use the scheduling program: www.schedule2drive.com to schedule all drive times. Parents will be able to view the teenager's progress. Your teenager will log into this website to set up the times he/she wants to drive.

RULES OF OPERATION AND CONDUCT

A student or prospective student may be dismissed or barred from the class for tardiness, rude, vulgar, or any disruptive behavior in the classroom; or being generally inattentive (sleeping, reading, talking, cell phone usage, texting, etc.) during class. Students terminated for violating rules of conduct may be reinstated at the discretion of the school directors. If a student is "removed from class" for discipline reasons, he/she will make-up that class the following month, during regular class time.
